Tax

Providing experienced counsel and representation on complex federal, state, and local taxation issues for private and public clients.

OVERVIEW

Obermayer's tax group provides advice, planning and dispute-resolution services relating to federal, state and local taxation for businesses, nonprofit organizations, estates, trusts and individuals. Clients turn to the attorneys on our Tax team when facing sophisticated tax issues, including:

- The formation, acquisition and disposition of closely-held businesses, real estate joint ventures and other businesses
- Mergers, acquisitions, and reorganizations
- Formation and operation of tax-exempt organizations
- Real estate transactions, including 1031 exchanges
- Charitable giving; and,
- Tax-exempt bond financing and tax aspects of employee benefit plans

Our tax attorneys represent clients before the Internal Revenue Service, state and local tax tribunals and in federal and state courts.

Our Value

Some people hear "tax" and have a visceral, negative reaction, even though they understand that tax is part of everyday business. We take that worry off their plate.

Our Clients

Counties, government agencies, and other public authorities regularly turn to the members of Obermayer's Tax practice. These and other private clients rely on our attorneys when confronting a nonprofit issue, tax planning, and other tax-related concerns.
