Mediation

Mediation is a more efficient option and a less combative way to reach an agreeable divorce, support or custody settlement.

OVERVIEW

“Our mediation practice is for clients who wish to avoid litigation, maintain control over their lives, and find a peaceful, private solution to resolve their family conflicts.”

— Samantha Evian

Dedicated Mediation Lawyers serving New Jersey, PA, DE, CT, & NY.

Litigation can take an enormous toll, financially and emotionally. Mediation is an efficient, amicable and expeditious alternative that couples seeking a divorce often pursue. Our New Jersey mediation lawyers are highly experienced in this area.

At the conclusion of the mediation process, if wanted, the mediator will prepare a summary of the decisions reached. If the summary is to become a legally binding agreement, an attorney must draft a formal agreement. A mediator does not make decisions for the couple and does not provide legal advice or representation.

Our Value

Obermayer’s experienced mediators are family law attorneys who know the difficulties and issues in a divorce or separation. We help clients focus on the most important issues in order to resolve conflicts amicably and to facilitate agreements with dignity and respect. We have experience, training, and high ethical standards that help serve our clients, empowering clients to reach agreements and solutions and providing a safe space for negotiations and results.

Each mediation matter gets our personal attention. We understand that our clients are going through extremely difficult times in their lives and we make every effort to alleviate the stress and tension. We work through cases issue by issue and ensure that our clients’ concerns are addressed every step of the way. We strive to keep fees reasonable for everyone and facilitate resolutions that are tailored for each couple.

Our Clients

We provide couples seeking a divorce or separation with a voluntary mediation process that gives couples the opportunity to work together to develop a mutually agreeable resolution. Mediation is a process in which each party defines their priorities and works together to achieve amicable agreements, a process that allows the parties to decide what should happen to their family and to their finances after separation or divorce.

The primary benefit of mediation is that the parties control the shape and terms of their agreement. Our skilled mediation lawyers can address and resolve equitable distribution (division of assets), alimony, child support and spousal support, custody, and visitation schedules.

Our Focus

Couples getting divorced or separated have the opportunity to listen to and talk with each other, share information, consider each other’s perspectives, and make voluntary, informed decisions, with the assistance and support of an impartial mediator.
