

MEET ANDY

Andy is the Chief Operating Officer, where he works closely with Obermayer's Managing Partner and other senior leaders to carry out the firm's strategic plan.

From finance to information technology, to human resources and facilities, Andy is involved in every facet of the firm's operations. He oversees day-to-day business issues while also keeping his eye on future opportunities and needs.

His leadership is essential to ensuring that Obermayer has the resources and business discipline necessary to innovate, grow, and thrive.

Outside of the office, spending time with his wife and three kids is his top priority. Andy is also very engaged in his local community. He currently serves as Chair of Lower Moreland's Planning Commission and was a long time Director and past president of Huntingdon Valley's Athletic Association.

In his remaining free time, you can find Andy hiking, biking, landscaping, and playing a multitude of sports, including pickleball, ping pong, and wallyball.
