Conshohocken orphans' court litigator

Diane is a partner in Obermayer's Trusts & Estates practice. She is an experienced trial attorney who has litigated more than 300 cases and served clients in Montgomery, Chester, Berks, and Bucks Counties.

Diane concentrates her practice on orphans' court litigation, adult guardianship cases, estate planning, and estate administration. She takes pride in serving as an advocate for vulnerable people who are not able to articulate what they need. Helping people solve problems is what she enjoys most about practicing law.

Outside of the office, Diane enjoys golfing, visiting museums, trying new restaurants, and digging into a mystery novel.

EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Obermayer, Diane founded and led Zabowski Law, a law firm concentrated in orphans' court litigation, estate administration, and family law. She has litigated more than 300 cases over the past 30 years.

Diane has served as a court-appointed counsel in incapacity and termination of parental rights cases in Montgomery County and as a court-appointed counsel in incapacity cases in Chester County. She was appointed as a Substitute Mental Health Review Officer under the Mental Health Procedures Act in 2018.
