

MEET HAROLD

"I work hard to get the best results for my clients."

— Harold G. Rosengarten, Associate

Harold focuses his practice on general litigation matters. He has represented individuals, corporations, partnerships, organizations, and trusts at all stages of litigation.

Harold knows that one of the most important aspects of his practice is finding the most efficient solution to his clients' problems. Whether he's dealing with a multimillion dollar lawsuit involving a major corporation or a smaller suit involving individual parties, Harold strives to achieve the best possible legal outcome.

An avid sports fan, Harold enjoys following the Mets, Jets, Knicks, and Arsenal. He also enjoys playing trivia.

EXPERIENCE

Some of Harold's notable cases include:

- Assisting in obtaining a $22 Million Verdict in an Asbestos claim against a number of large national corporations;
- Defeating a summary judgment motion in New York County Supreme Court and obtaining a million dollar settlement for the client.

Harold prosecuted felony cases as an Assistant District Attorney of Queens County, NY. He took numerous cases to trial and had a 75% conviction rate.

ACTIVITIES & HONORS

Harold is the Services Coordinator for his Synagogue. He is also coaches a first and second grade softball team.

---

EDUCATION

- Benjamin D. Cardozo School of Law, JD
- Yeshiva University, BA, History

ADMISSIONS

- New York
- United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York
- United States District Court for the Southern District of New York

---

CAPABILITIES

Litigation

Commercial Litigation
Construction Litigation
Insurance

Labor & Employment

Labor Arbitration