

MEET JARED

Jared is the Chair of Obermayer’s Tax Department. He focuses his practice on tax structuring and analysis attendant to business transactions, representing clients before the Internal Revenue Service, and advising clients on tax considerations critical to:

- Choice of entity questions and the formation, acquisition, and disposition of closely-held businesses, real estate joint ventures, and other entities
- Mergers, acquisitions, and reorganizations
- Non-profit tax issues and formation and operation of tax-exempt organizations
- 1031 exchanges
- Charitable giving
- Tax-exempt financing
- Gift and estate tax planning

As a trusted advisor, Jared provides tax guidance to clients in connection with a variety of commercial transactions, which have included significant IPOs.

Jared believes in a practical, streamlined, and deal-oriented approach to tax analysis with the goal of helping clients minimize tax exposures.

In his free time, Jared enjoys family time with his wife and son, golf, and rooting for the Philadelphia 76ers.

EXPERIENCE

Jared has extensive experience identifying value-added opportunities in the M&A context resulting from tax-efficient structuring and has performed tax due diligence and tax structuring for several multi-billion dollar cross-border carveouts, spinoffs, and outright acquisitions.

Jared's notable representative matters include:
