MEET JEN

"I am a reliable, compassionate, and zealous advocate who helps others through a difficult time in their lives."

— Jennifer L. Iseman

MOUNT LAUREL DIVORCE LAWYER

Jen is a partner in Obermayer’s Family Law practice in Mount Laurel, New Jersey, focusing on divorce, support, and custody litigation in the courts. As a highly skilled Mount Laurel divorce lawyer, Jen regularly negotiates complex, financial-based matrimonial settlements as well as child custody and parenting-time agreements.

Clients seek Jen’s representation in all aspects and stages of matrimonial, custody, and support litigation. These include trials, emergent applications, plenary hearings, custody trials, domestic violence hearings, pre- and post-judgment applications, early settlement panels, economic mediations, settlement conferences, case management conferences, and uncontested hearings. Jen is a trusted and respected divorce lawyer serving Mount Laurel and the surrounding area.

In her spare time, Jen enjoys spending time with her family and friends and, if time allows, reading and traveling.

EXPERIENCE

Jen has practiced exclusively family law since the inception of her career. As a divorce lawyer and as part of her matrimonial litigation practice, Jen regularly engages with a variety of professionals, including forensic accountants, employability experts, real estate appraisers, and custody evaluators. In addition, Jen assists clients with the valuation and distribution of businesses, professional practices, executive benefits, and other assets, such as stock options and restricted stocks.

Prior to joining Obermayer, Jen was an attorney at a South Jersey law firm, where she concentrated her practice on family law matters, including divorce, child custody and visitation, child support, domestic violence, and divorce and family law mediation.

After graduating from law school, Jen served as judicial law clerk to the Honorable John L. Call, Jr. in the New Jersey Superior Court, Burlington Vicinage.
