

MEET JESS

“I am a fierce advocate for my clients’ best interests, but I believe true advocacy requires honesty. You’ll always get the truth so you can make informed, confident decisions.”

— Jessica R. Middleton

Jess focuses her practice on all aspects of family law in the greater Mount Laurel, New Jersey area, including divorce, custody, domestic violence, adoption, equitable distribution, child and spousal support, and mediation.

Jess takes pride in helping individuals navigate emotionally complex situations with a calm, nonjudgmental approach and a steady focus on resolution. She maintains open communication, keeps clients actively involved, and approaches each case with a direct, honest perspective to achieve efficient, practical outcomes.

Outside the office, Jess enjoys Philadelphia’s sports scene, exploring local restaurants, and staying active with workout classes. She’s also an avid moviegoer who values time with friends and family.

EXPERIENCE

Since completing her clerkship with the Honorable Judith S. Charny in Camden County, Jess has focused her legal career solely on family law. Her extensive experience includes assisting in complex divorce trials, successfully arguing a broad range of motions, and managing family law cases from initial filing through final resolution.

ACTIVITIES & HONORS

In law school, Jess served as an Executive Board Member of the Drexel Alternative Dispute Resolution Team and worked as a Teaching Assistant.

While earning her Bachelor's degree in English from The College of New Jersey, Jess served as a Bonner Community Scholar. Jess dedicated 300 hours each year to making a local impact, focusing her efforts on tutoring inmates for their GEDS as well as supporting youth at an after-school program in Trenton, New Jersey.
