

MEET MARY

"I pride myself on my ability to establish and maintain relationships that allow for successful outcomes."

— Mary Arnold

Mary is an associate in Obermayer’s Litigation Department where she focuses her practice on general liability.

Mary treats every case as if it were her only case. She is detail-oriented, being sure to investigate every issue and employ strategic decision making that leads to successful outcomes.

In her free time, Mary reads everything she can get her hands on, from current magazines to NY Times bestsellers and everything in between. Her and a friend also operate a popular Instagram account, and enjoy reaping the benefits of their labor.

EXPERIENCE

Before joining Obermayer, Mary worked at a major medical malpractice defense firm in New York City, where she represented hospitals, nursing homes, doctors, dentists, and podiatrists in all stages of litigation. She appeared in multiple New York State boroughs, completed numerous plaintiffs’ depositions, and argued motions for summary judgement.

Mary previously served as an Assistant District Attorney for five years in the Bronx County District Attorney’s office. She gained significant courtroom experience while serving as a prosecutor, and was responsible for handling cases from their inception to verdict. Mary presented numerous cases to the Grand Jury, ranging from crimes such as robbery to attempted murder. She spent over two years in the Child Abuse and Sex Crime Bureau where she handled upwards of twenty indictments.

EDUCATION

- Temple University, Beasley School of Law, JD
- St. John's University, BS, Legal Studies

ADMISSIONS

- New York

CAPABILITIES

Litigation

Insurance