MEET RICH

"I am committed to making sure the outcome is favorable to my clients."

— Richard S. Seidel

Rich focuses his practice on medical malpractice and professional liability defense, representing health care providers, including hospitals, health systems, physicians, nurses, dentists, and long-term care providers in medical malpractice matters.

Rich has spent over 3 decades litigating and trying medical malpractice claims on behalf of both defendants and plaintiffs, successfully managing complex medical malpractice cases from inception to trial. He enjoys being in a courtroom and the sense of satisfaction he gets from helping his clients.

When not working, Rich likes to play the guitar and to watch sports.

EXPERIENCE

Rich has over thirty years of experience handling complex medical malpractice matters.

Some of his most notable accomplishments include:

- Litigated one of the first EMTALA victories in the district of New Jersey
- Successfully litigated $8.5M verdict in hypoxic brain injury to a newborn
- Handled numerous arbitrations resulting in awards from $10K to $1M
- Proposed and passed resolutions in the Philadelphia Bar Association including hate crimes legislation, bar election procedures, and state civil justice.
