

MEET YOUNG

“I enjoy being an advocate for my clients not only through litigation, but in all of the avenues available in our civil society.”

— Young Min Lee

Young is a member of the firm’s Litigation Department, focusing on Insurance Defense Litigation. He handles civil litigation cases from inception to resolution through all stages of litigation from initial pleadings to trial and appeals. He also handles insurance coverage issues and alternative dispute resolution matters such as arbitrations and mediations.

Young is passionate about being an effective advocate for in the many different they may require. He doesn’t believe “customer service” is a derogatory term for this professional line of work but is rather a concept that is too often overlooked in many aspects of daily business. Young works hard to fulfill the needs of his clients to this end.

Young is fluent in Korean. He enjoys playing and watching sports, especially basketball, and he has a great passion for music.

EXPERIENCE

Young has experience in both civil litigation and settlement negotiations. His accomplishments include being awarded summary judgment in various matters ranging from construction and labor law cases, premises liability, insurance coverage, and automobile cases. He has successfully negotiated favorable settlements in these same areas.
